GRADUATE ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Oregon State University offers admission to applicants whose records demonstrate the highest potential for graduate study and promise for substantial contribution to both their academic professions and to a diverse, global society. The university fosters an environment that welcomes inclusiveness.

Admission decisions are based on many factors, such as the quality of the applicant's prior academic degree and record of accomplishment, statement of purpose, letters of recommendation from professors or others familiar with the applicant's academic work, performance in aptitude and achievement tests, relevant work experience, preparation in the proposed field of study, and the connection of the applicant's academic goals with the faculty's research interests.

The following minimum entrance requirements guide the university and its graduate programs in the consideration of applicants for graduate admission:

U.S. CITIZEN AND PERMANENT RESIDENT APPLICANTS

- A four-year baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university, and
- A combined GPA of 3.00 on the last 90 quarter (60 semester) credit hours of graded undergraduate work towards the first baccalaureate degree, plus all work completed thereafter, or
- A four-year baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university, and a 45-quarter-credit hour graduate degree from an accredited university.
- Minimum GPA for admission to only graduate certificate programs is set by the departments that supervise the certificates. Applicants requesting admission to only graduate certificate programs should contact their departments to learn about minimum GPA and other requirements.

THE GRADUATE ADMISSION PROCESS

All graduate admission application materials should be sent in one packet to the Graduate School. The department you request as your major will examine the material you submit to determine the adequacy of your scholastic background and decide whether departmental facilities are adequate for your expressed aims. A critical consideration in the decision is whether your academic objectives can be fulfilled satisfactorily by the OSU graduate program to which you are seeking admission. The department of your major will notify you if additional materials are required.

In the case of MAIS applicants, three departments or programs, one for each field within your integration, will examine your materials.

Supplemental information you provide as part of your application materials, such as letters of reference and your statement of purpose will greatly assist faculty in assessing both your preparation for graduate study and the academic program's ability to meet your stated goals. You are encouraged to give thoughtful attention to your choice of references and to your written statement of purpose.

If your baccalaureate degree was awarded by an institution that issues nongraded transcripts, admission will be considered with the support of your intended department's written evaluation attesting to the quality of your student transcript record.

If you do not meet the minimum requirements for graduate admission you may be considered with the support of your academic program, plus review and approval by the University Graduate Admissions Committee. If your overall GPA on the last 90 hours is less than 3.00 on a 4.00 scale, you are encouraged to take the Graduate Record Examination (GRE). Your GRE score, in combination with your transcripts, letters of reference, and statement of purpose, may be used by the academic program as another predictor of your success in graduate study.

In an effort to ensure academic success, options are available for all students to improve English language proficiency, both written and oral. Prospective graduate students should be aware that the university is not able to accommodate all applicants who meet the minimum admission requirements.

GRADUATE APPLICATION DEADLINES

The academic program in which you seek admission may establish its own application deadline, which may be substantially earlier than the general university deadlines shown below. Please contact your proposed major department for specific dates.

Applicants within the U.S.

- No later than 30 days prior to the first day of classes

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

You must submit all your application materials at one time to the Graduate School. You are encouraged to contact your academic program(s) of interest to determine whether additional admission materials are required beyond those listed below. To assure prompt processing of your application, follow these instructions carefully.

Please collect and mail all of the following materials in one packet to:

Graduate School
Oregon State University
300 Kerr Administration Building
Corvallis, OR 97331-2106

*Note: Applicants seeking admission only to a graduate certificate program must provide items 1, 2, and 3 below to the Graduate School and contact their departments to determine what other departmental materials are required for admission to the graduate certificate program.

1. Original and one copy of the paper application form or one electronic version of the graduate application. (MAIS applicants must submit an original and four copies of the paper application form.)
2. $55 check or money order in U.S. dollars payable to Oregon State University for the nonrefundable application fee. If you apply electronically, this fee must be paid by VISA, MasterCard, or Discover Card.
3. Two photocopies of all transcripts (not grade slips or reports) of previous academic work, undergraduate and graduate. (MAIS applicants must submit five photocopies of all transcripts.) Transcripts showing the last 90 quarter (60 semester) credit hours of the first baccalaureate degree must be included. All graduate and postbaccalaureate transcripts must be included. A certified English translation must be included for academic transcripts in languages other than English. If you are admitted, an official transcript from the above institutions must be received by the Graduate School prior to your second term of registration for a graduate degree program and prior to the first term of registration for a graduate certificate program.
4. Two copies of your statement of objectives and particular fields of interest (MAIS applicants must submit four copies of the statement of objectives. The MAIS statement of objectives should discuss the three areas of study you are proposing, how they fit together to lend themselves to interdisciplinary study, and the rationale justifying why an interdisciplinary degree is being sought, as opposed to a degree based in a single discipline. Also discuss how your proposed academic objectives will help you meet your career goals or other goals beyond earning the MAIS degree. The statement should be 750 - 1000 words.) If you are applying electronically, your statement of objectives will be forwarded to the departments.
5. Three letters of professional reference are required of all students, addressed to the proposed major department/program. If you have a master's degree, you should include a letter from your former major professor. Reference letters should be written on official letterhead. (MAIS applicants must submit four copies of each of their three letters of professional reference. Unless your proposed program specifies sending letters directly to them, you may submit them to the Graduate School as part of your application packet and they will be forwarded.
6. Certain departments/programs require the GRE of all applicants. Address inquiries regarding GRE requirements to your proposed academic program. MBA applicants must submit a GMAT score.
7. All MAIS applicant materials - application, statement, transcripts, and letters - should be sent directly to the Graduate School.

Application materials for funding should be sent directly to the departments and programs.

An Oregon "resident for tuition purposes" is a person who has, or a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian has, established and maintained a physical domicile in Oregon for at least twelve months. This must be a bonafide domicile rather than for the purpose of maintaining a residence incident to enrollment at an institution of higher education. Living, working, owning property or attending school in Oregon will not, in itself, establish legal residence for tuition purposes. Students who depend on out-of-state parents for support are presumed to be legal residents of the same state as their parents.

Residency information must be supplied by each person applying for admission to Oregon State University. Omission of information will result in a tuition classification of non-resident. Contact the Office of Admissions if you have any questions about your residency status.

NOTE: If your residency status is unclear, you must complete a Residency Information Affidavit.

YOUR ADMISSION STATUS

You may be admitted to the Graduate School under the following categories:

- Regular Graduate Student - a student who has been accepted by the university and by a major department/program to work toward an advanced degree
- Conditionally Admitted Graduate Student - a student who has not met the formal admission requirements but whose accomplishments have convinced the University Graduate Admissions Committee and the proposed major department/program that he or she has potential for success as an advanced degree candidate
- Provisionally Admitted Graduate - a student who has met all university criteria for admission but not yet all of the additional requirements specific to the academic department/program

Once you are admitted, you should be certain you understand your admission status. Official admission is granted by the "Letter of Admission" from the Graduate School and is effective only for the term specified in the letter. If you wish to postpone your enrollment and attend in a future term, please submit a letter of your intent to the Graduate School. The application fee is effective for one academic year from the date of your initial application. Applicants for a different academic year will be required to submit a new application form. New academic years begin with summer term.

NONDISCRIMINATION AND DIVERSITY STATEMENT

Oregon State University in compliance with state and federal law and regulation, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age, disability or veteran's status in any of its policies, procedures, or practices. This nondiscrimination policy covers admission and access to, and treatment of employment in, University programs and activities, including but not limited to academic admissions, financial aid, educational services, and employment.

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER DISCLOSURE AND CONSENT STATEMENT

As an eligible educational institution OSU must get your correct social security number (SSN) to file certain returns with the IRS and to furnish a statement to you. The returns OSU must file contain information about qualified tuition and related expenses. Privacy Act Notice - Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to give your correct SSN to persons who must file information returns with the IRS to report certain information. The IRS uses the numbers for identification purposes and to help verify the accuracy of your tax return. For more information please refer to IRS code 6050S. By providing your SSN you also authorize OSU and OUS to use your SSN for tracking and statistical purposes as outlined in the OUS Disclosure and Consent Statement contained in the printed and web versions of the OSU Schedule of Classes for each term. Although your SSN is required to process your application, you will be issued a student ID number other than your SSN. This ID number will be mailed to you.
